George Touxexis : Creative Haven Sea Life Paint by Number (Adult Coloring) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Creative Haven Sea Life Paint by Number (Adult Coloring):

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. loving it!By Karen B.I read a lot of reviews before ordering. Not so good reviews. But what they complained about I found fun. First I made my key chart getting as close to the one at the back of book. Remember you can venture out on your own with colors. Next the numbers are very small. But I don't want them showing through the coloring. So I use a magnifying glass. I search for all the same number and mark with that color pencil. Now the spaces not numbered are suppose to stay free or you can shade them in or just pick a color you want to color it in with. I love it. Can't wait to see how a picture turns out once I start. Just like a kid a again.2 of 2

people found the following review helpful. Having so much fun, i cant stop!By Tracey GiffinI just love this book, I have another one also they do have alot of the same pages. I don't paint it I still use my color pencils. I do wish the company would make more under the sea color by numbers books with all diffrent creatures under the sea.2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. I love it.
