CSI-related review, I'm a huge CSI fan. The IDW graphic novels are all good, so far as they go, and "Dying in the Gutters" is no exception. Here's the "but", though, for both "Dying in the Gutters" and the rest of the graphic novels...the stories are just too short, leaving me with the feeling I've been shortchanged on story line.

The suspects are many — among them Marvel Comics' Editor-in-Chief Joe Quesada, Ed Brubaker, Marc Silvestri, Robert Kirkman, Ben Templesmith, Peter David, Greg Rucka and many other well-known comic creators! Can the CSIs solve the crime before "dead is dead" becomes commonplace at the con?
