So I'm already partial to the style of writing and humor from the site. The calendar is a well made quality calendar with an awesome layout and style. What makes it more fun is that the pictures all have a little something to say. I know that the humor style they use isn't for everyone, and that some feel it is more juvenile, but for some of us, we'll always be kids at heart, and really there's all ages from teens to grandparents who visit the site and comment and laugh together daily. I think this calendar is a great addition to that feeling. I also find it fun to look at cute animal pictures that do sometimes push the boundaries of what most people consider cute. It has given me the opportunity to look at things in a different way. When you add in the witty (in my opinion) commentary, well then, you've got a winner in my book! :-)

Suggestion, check out CUTEOVERLOAD.COM first if you've never been, then decide if this is the calendar for you. If you like witty puns, making up silly/unusual stories to go along with the pictures of your standard calendars, and other creative sparks, then you might appreciate this calendar. 6 of 6 people found the following review helpful. For those who just love "CUTE", it's perfect! By Espialia Bisiani One big picture at the top of each month with smaller pictures throughout the days of the month itself. It's not the best choice if you need a calendar for planning as there is very little space to write in the days, but if you want sugary-sweet pictures of a wide variety of animals (with little slogans to make you laugh) as your daily calendar, this is the one for you! (incidentally, I got this as sort of a joke for my animal-loving boyfriend and he loves it!) 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Awww! By Jacob Kekoa Rombaoa I know I'm very late with this review, but better late than never. I bought this calendar to put up in my room and it was great. It helped start my day right to look at cute animals while checking my schedule. And after coming home, there are few days so bad that staring at this calendar can't cheer me up.

An utter onslaught of cute—don't even try to resist. Adapted from the website Time magazine proclaimed the “#1 mood lifter,” Cute Overload takes soft and warm and fuzzy to redonkulous extremes. Every month's spread features a large photograph at the top of the page demonstrating a “Rule of Cuteness” (#4: More than one species of baby animal flopping around is cute), plus dozens of smaller images in the grid below. Indulge in day after day of soft little kitties, shy bunnies, goofy pups, curly white lambs. Plus pandas and sea otters, prairie dogs, and a wee little hermit crab. All with smart, funny captions. You want to say it: awwwww.
