I read a little bit, great humor, just classic dad stories and stuff.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Something for every kind of DadBy Jonathan HeepHilarious. Perfect Father's Day gift.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Hilariously FunnyBy Gale ZThoroughly enjoyable satire. Great gift for that special lovable Dad in your life. Reminds me of my all time favorites National Lampoon and Mad magazine!

Packed with dad jokes and parenting humor, this parody "magazine" is the perfect gift for Fathers Day or cool dads anytime. This hilarious dad-centric satire is the first "magazine" written exclusively by dads, for dads! Complete with hard-hitting feature reporting (“What’s Going On with Your Neighbor’s Lawn?”), in-depth lifestyle articles (“How to Talk to Your Son About Growing A Beard”), fashion tips (“Buying Shoes on eBay: A Guide”), and insightful opinion pieces (“These Smoke Detectors Are Too Damn Sensitive, If You Ask Me”), this is the perfect faux periodical for dads of every age, facial-hair style, and sandals/socks combo. Photos, illustrations, and humorous (fake) advertisements throughout showcase all the frustrations, failures, and funny moments that make up the face of modern fatherhood.

“[A] clever satire.”—People“. . . any papa willing to laugh at himself will adore this delightful and oh-so-loving homage to fathers.”—New York Magazine’s The Cut“the ultimate dad joke—a book-length satire of universal dad behavior, in deadpan magazine form.”—Fast CompanyAbout the AuthorJaya Saxena and Matt Lubchansky have written for The Toast, The Daily Dot, Entertainment Weekly, Men’s Journal, The Guardian, and WNYC’s TLDR podcast, among others.
