It is so interesting because it surveys the life of not only an aesthetic nurse (which is endlessly fascinating in itself) but also of a community nurse, a kind of work so selfless and entirely different from the aesthetic nursing! So you get two different dynamics in one book which keeps you hooked. on top of that, there are so many different stories within stories, and lots of just very refreshing honesty from the author's own thoughts. Not to mention this book is just hilarious, it kept me laughing out loud all the way through. It is definitely worth reading as it gives an interesting insight into the lives of many, many different kinds of people, and makes you laugh, scoff, cheer, cry, ...everything! definitely worth a read!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. HilariousBy SJI have the pleasure of knowing Polly personally, and this kind and caring woman has completely opened a new door on what she really thinks of the women she caters to, needle in hand. Polly has opened the door on the otherwise-assumedly droll English countryside's wealthy elite. When I arrived in her home town from the coach, an elderly couple was driving a horse-drawn cart, but the true story of the local women whom Polly serves with her Botox fix-all is a rollicking story of the inner thoughts of the women whose trout pouts always had you wondering what was really going on inside.

Botox Nurse Polly travels around the Paradise Islands of the Yorkshire and Lancashire suburbs. The affluent area's where the designer shoe and handbag brigade accumulate and also the depressed, deprived area's where the Waynetta's and Britney's congregate

About the AuthorPolly is 45 years of age and lives in Yorkshire with her Husband and two children. She works as a Community Nurse and Aesthetic Nurse in the Yorkshire and Lancashire hills.
