BrisbaneA FUN CHILDRENS BOOK FOR SAVYY POLITICAL JUNKIES AND /OR PEOPLE WHO THINK IT JUST A BAD IDEA TO TRAVEL WITH A DOG IN A BOX ON THE CAR ROOF FOR A 13 HOUR CAR JOURNEY.NO ONE IN THEIR COMPASSIONATE, RIGHT MIND WOULD TREAT THEIR PET THIS WAY.SO THE BOOK MAKES THE JOKE AS IF SOMEONE WOULD BE HEARTLESS ENOUGH..IM GLAD I BOUGHT THE ILLUSTRATED BOOK.i would most certaily recommend the book to anyone. its written in poem styleand the pictures and illustrations are fun as well..1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Hilarious BookBy Jodi A. WhiteI recommend this product to all dog lovers who can't believe poor Seamus Romney rode on the top of a car for 12 hours.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Bought for a friend. She loved it.By MMSOUTHWBeing from Massachusetta I enjoy anything re politics. Mitt Romney is a person I follow. He was a runner for the election for president.

The political humor book of the election season—Dog on the Roof! chronicles Mitt Romney’s infamous family adventure with hilarious four-color illustrations throughout.They were the typical American family on a typical American road trip—Dad behind the wheel, Mom in the passenger seat, their five adorable kids piled in the back. And, of course, their beloved dog strapped to the roof. Wait . . . what? Now for the first time, here is the completely true—and only mildly embellished— shaggy-dog story of Seamus Romney, the famously fetching Irish setter whose master, future presidential candidate Mitt Romney, plopped him atop the family station wagon for that infamous 1983 car trip. From the majesty of Mount Rushmore to the fabulousness of San Francisco, from the sacred temple of Salt Lake City to the hallowed halls of Washington, D.C., here at last is Seamus’s rooftop account of that headline-grabbing journey . . . unleashed. Doggedly chronicled by satirists Bruce Kluger and David Slavin (NPR’s All Things Considered), and cleverly illustrated by Colleen Clapp (The Chris Matthews Show, NBC News), this American tale is more than just the story of a dog on a hot tin roof. It is the inside (well . . . overhead) look at the Man Who Would Be President and the wild ride that’s sweeping—and bewildering—the nation.

About the Author Bruce Kluger and David Slavin began writing and performing satire for National Public Radio’s All Things Considered in 2002.
