book this is one of my go to books for a cute little gift! Love the sayings0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Four StarsBy Orifun "spare time" reading. Thanks.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A great gift bookBy Ann RI bought this book for my adult daughter's birthday because I liked the range of quotations and thoughtfulness of the selection. It's easy to pick up any time you need to be comforted or inspired.

Uncommon times call for uncommon wisdom. It's inspiring to hear from people who've graduated from the school of hard knocks, yet kept a sense of humor. People like Twain, Voltaire, Oscar Wilde. People who've said the thing so well that we all wish we'd said it. People who've been there, done that, and refuse to sugarcoat what they've learned. People who know, as Sherry Hochman puts it, that "Every day is a gift?even if it sucks."From Kathryn and Ross petras, curators of craziness (and surprising smarts), comes a timely collection of reassuring reality:"Why is there so much month left at the end of the money?"?John Barrymore"October. This is one of the peculiarly dangerous months to speculate in stocks in. The others are July, January, September, April, November, May, March, June, December, August, and February." ?Mark Twain"I know God will not give me anything I can't handle. I just wish he didn't trust me so much."?Mother Teresa"When one burns one's bridges, what a very nice fire it makes."?Dylan Thomas "If you think you have it tough, read history books."?Bill MaherAnd Voltaire: "Life is a shipwreck but we must not forget to sing in the lifeboats."

"Why is there so much month left at the end of the money?"---John Barrymore "October. This is one of the peculiarly dangerous months to speculate in stocks. The others are July, January, September, April, November, May, March, June, December, August, and February." Mark Twain "I know God will not give me anything I can't handle. I just wish he didn't trust me so much"---Mother Teresa "When one burns one's bridges, what a very nice fire it makes." Dylan Thomas And Voltaire: "Life is a shipwreck but we must not forget to sing in the lifeboats."From the Back Cover"The first rule of holes: when you're in one, stop digging." ?Molly Ivins, Writer"Some days you're a bug. Some days you're a windshield." ?Price Cobb, Race Car Driver"In times like these it is good to remember there have always been times like these." ?Paul Harvey, Radio BroadcasterWhen life hands you lemons, it's inspiring to hear from people who've made (and drunk) the lemonade. People who've been there, done that, and lived to tell the tale. Who've graduated from the school of hard knocks and never lost their sense of humor. People like Mark Twain, Warren Buffett, Marlene Dietrich, Natalie Goldberg, Amarillo Slim, Fran Lebowitz, Michael Jordan. People who know, as the writer Sherry Hochman puts it, that "Every day is a gift?even if it sucks."
