One StarBy CustomerI was not particularly impressed with this book.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Like listening to your funny mom friend in the living room! Loved it! Highly recommend.By CustomerThere are many things that cross over a mother's lips which she never predicted would be necessary prior to having children. Mother and author Kersten Campbell memorializes one of those statements in the title of her second book, "Don't Put Lipstick on the Cat-- Humorous Tales of Motherhood". Last week, I had the opportunity to sit back on my couch and enjoy the relatable content between planned and emerging mommy duties, which was easy due to it's format. Kersten has curated a playful collection of short stories taken from her own life and even some from her family's. I felt like I was sitting in a room with my friend listening to her entertain, delight, and frighten me all at the same time. I know every mom has lots of funny stories to tell, but this author has the talent to write them down with brave sincerity, wit, and greatly appreciated brevity. For my full review, visit my blog!
