Hope A Nulf : Doodle Me Hope #2: Hiding In Plain Sight (Volume 2) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Doodle Me Hope #2: Hiding In Plain Sight (Volume 2):

Hope Abbigail Nulf is a special education teacher in Las Vegas working for the Clark County School District. She has been teaching students with special needs for 21 years in three states. However, Doodle Me came long before teaching. Doodle Me was born in a hospital bed after a particularly brutal high school beating in 1977. She has been a lifelong companion ever since that day in what were to be decades of bad times, and in the past 10 years, finally happy times. Hope lives with her cat, Frisco McGee (aka Whack Job) and a sketch pad that never leaves her side. Doodle Me can be found on Twitter and Instagram, where Hope has published new doodles daily for the past 965 days.

About the Author Hope Abigail Nulf is a special education teacher in Las Vegas working for the Clark County School District. She has been teaching students with special needs for 21 years in three different states, however Doodle Me came way before the teaching. Doodle Me was born in a hospital bed after a particularly brutal high school beating in 1977. She has been a lifelong companion ever since that day in what were to be decades of bad times, and in the last 10 finally happy times. Hope lives with her cat Frisco McGee ("Whack Job") and a sketch pad that never leaves her side.
