I absolutely love the pictures which make it so much fun to color. It is The perfect activity to sit with family and pass the time. Some pictures are more intricate and others easier so my 10 year old niece and I could color together. I recommend this book for people any age.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy Judith AlexinGorgeous pictures.

Appealing to all ages, this beautifully detailed coloring book features intricate illustrations spanning an array of subjects. Colorists will shade their way through delicate florals, tessellations, ornate knotwork and more on their journey. You'll notice influence from Celtic knotwork, Mughal paintings, mehndi (henna) designs, and Nordic carvings. While the subject matter varies, they are united by this unique, global aesthetic. Each of the 40 illustrations is individually printed on a single page, so cutting out and framing is easy. Break out the colored pencils, pens, and markers: let your creativity go wild with hues of happiness!

About the AuthorMs. DiStefano is a soprano by trade, and a self-taught artist. As a published author, her articles have been featured in various opera-related publications. Her busy schedule includes performing, teaching music appreciation classes, illustrating, and caring for her adorable rescue puppy and kitten. Her vast repertoire, spanning 16 languages and featuring both folk and classical music, has greatly influenced her drawing style, as her illustrations embrace the beauty and charm of different cultures. Ms. DiStefano is excited to continue sharing her love of the arts... be it on the stage, in a lecture hall, or through her coloring books.
