If you do, you should no that ALL the strips in "Humongus" come from the first two collections. If you don't already have the first two, by all means get this one! 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Perfect for those who love Zits! By missy I grew up reading Zits in the Sunday newspaper and just loving Jeremy and his parents! This was the perfect Christmas gift because it has so many cartoons that I've never read before (remember, I only ever read what was in the newspaper). The first few pages highlight Jeremy's background, relationships, and personality. There are a few pages that are all in color (the first few), and the rest are a mix of colored and black and white. I kind of wish it was all in color, but oh well. I also love that there are small sketches in some of the corners showing how the artists created the final cartoon. For someone working full time with a high-stress job, this is perfect for ending my days...always on a funny note! 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Very funny! By Thomas J. Adams Very funny!

Adolescence is a time of painful growth and unpredictable change, when kids come packaged in a jumble of baggy jeans, rolling eyeballs, and grunting communication. Cartoonists Jerry Scott and Jim Borgman have captured the humor of that challenging time with Zits, in which they chronicle the life and times of the typically exasperating yet ever lovable Jeremy Duncan. In this first Zits treasury, faithful fans of Jeremy's world will get a glimpse behind the scenes with never-before-seen sketches and the stories behind the strips. Sunday cartoons appear in full-color, highlighting the strip's acclaimed drawing style. Even though the teenage terrain is rocky, Zits is warm and sympathetic. "The highest compliment we hear from readers is, 'You must have a camera hidden in our house!'" says Borgman.

About the AuthorZits writer Jerry Scott also is co-creator of the award-winning strip Baby Blues. He won the National Cartoonists Society's Reuben Award in 2001 for his work on both strips. He lives in Malibu, Calif. Zits artist Jim Borgman won the 1991 Pulitzer Prize for editorial cartooning and the Reuben Award in 1993. Jim lives in Cincinnati, Ohio, where he is the editorial cartoonist for the Cincinnati Enquirer.
