for something very different to read. I stumbled across the title, and since I enjoy humor and church, I thought why not give this author/book a try.... Glad I did. I really did need to laugh (out loud). It really was a fun read! Hope to read his other books in the near future.

Humorous events, stories and experiences in the church that will make you laugh and are definitely worth reading.

About the Author Jim Rennell has enjoyed successful careers as a military officer, minister, and educator. He has recently again taken up writing articles and publishing books as a hobby. He has published two other books; SENIOR HUMOR and THE POWER OF WORDS, a 15-session Bible Study, with the hopes that he can bring some joy and happiness to his readers. In his military career he rose from a paratrooper Private to Sergeant. Ten years later after completing his formal education, he returned to the military as a chaplain. He spent twenty-seven years, starting out as a First Lieutenant and retiring as a Bird Colonel. His ministry included work as a pastor, educator, denominational worker and professor. After finishing his military career, he taught as an adjunct professor in history, interpersonal relations and adult education. Evaluating his career moves, he said it looks like he couldn't hold a job for long.
