It was a rough and lonely journey . I am spiritual but this is more Christian.

THAT DOESNT MATTER TO ME BUT THE MESSAGE CONTAINED IN THIS BOOK DOES! she helps see harsh trials and tribulations in life when we feel alone bring them to a better view point of uplift! I bought two of these a few months ago. One I sent to my cousin fighting cancer. The other I have on standby to gift put to the first person I saw in need of light in their life!She is a sage in this life and gifts out her live to others!I suggest this to anyone!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Laughter doeth Good like a MedicineBy scrappnshellyThis is the first of Barbara Johnson's books that I have read. I'm not done with it yet, but i highly recommend it if you are going through a devastating experience in your life. I didn't realize just how much it would minister to me to know that there are other parents out there walking the same path as we are, but it does. Her down-to-earth writing style is combined with a great sense of humor. I am glad a friend introduced me to Barbara Johnson0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. GiftBy KarrieGave the series as a gift. Hope she read them

Laugh your way through the maturity maze with the Geranium Lady! A 2001 cancer diagnosis sent best-selling author and beloved Woman of Faith® speaker Barbara Johnson "crying to God about the way He was bringing my life to a close." In this, Barbara's fourth "last book" of zany joy and senior silliness, she celebrates still laughing and still growing older by poking fun at time-sensitive topics ranging from again (I'm ready to meet my Maker . . . but He's apparently tied up with a previous engagement) to forgetfulness (Of course I'll smile for the camera . . . just as soon as I find my teeth). Humor Me, I'm Over the Hill is the Geranium Lady's irresistibly funny appeal to her fellow adventurers in aging to "live happily to one hundred?or die trying!"

About the AuthorBarbara Johnson was the founder of Spatula Ministries, a coauthor of various Women of Faith devotionals, and the author of numerous bestselling books, including Boomerang Joy, Living Somewhere between Estrogen and Death, and Stick a Geranium in Your Hat and Be Happy.
