Sam J. Ervin : Humor of a Country Lawyer (Chapel Hill Books) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Humor of a Country Lawyer (Chapel Hill Books):

MarksThis work was given to me by an older lady who is a lifelong Democrat and I appreciate this book as it was a gift and turned out to be a wonderful read! This work by Ervin utilizes his political and other experiences while delighting the reader with his southern charm and old-fashioned humor that is sorely missed in modern times. I particularly enjoy the part where he is asked to join Democrats for Reagan and notes that he invariably supported the Democratic nominee since James M. Cox and would support Jimmy Carter in 1980. I also enjoyed many of the jokes in this work, which I do not intend to spoil. Ervin was a unique breed and I encourage readers to look as his other works, such as Preserving the Constitution, and giving a fair hearing to a man, who while not always right, deeply cherished the Constitution and the precepts it enshrined. 0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Great Book By Apollo Great condition! Signed by Senator Sam! What a piece of History!

Originally published in 1984, Senator Ervin's delightful collection of stories and anecdotes winds its way from his native Morganton through Chapel Hill and Harvard, the military, the North Carolina Supreme Court, the United States Senate, and Watergate. It represents a lifetime of wit and wisdom--told in the late Senator Ervin's inimitable style.

A decade after his TV tour de force as chairman of the Senate's Watergate Committee, Sam Ervin has lost nary a jot of his formidable charm and folksy wit. . . . The reader can just sit back, feet propped up, and imagine craggy country lawyer Ervin, shaggy brows a-waggin', spinning his yarns. . . . A jocund, nimble-minded country lawyer, expertly ladling out moonshine folksiness.--Kirkus sSure to brighten up the gloomiest of days.--The State About the Author Sam J. Ervin, Jr. (1896-1985), a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and Harvard Law School, served as senator from North Carolina from 1954 to 1974.
