It's not just a coloring book, but a book for women of all ages that has a very important message about love and empowerment. It goes beyond loving one another and instead lets us know it's okay to love ourselves and all the parts of us that make us who we are. It's a great way to build confidence in ourselves and reflect on all those little things that we and others take for granted. I highly recommend this book not only for yourself, but also, for mothers, daughter, sisters, aunts and grandmothers! The images are powerful with text that directly relates to each image. There is a unique message on each page that serves as a reminder to all of us, to remember what we are made of and the strength we don't even know we have within us! 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful.
