It should be read by all cat lovers as they will fondly remember their own furry family member(s). It could convert a few non-cat lovers too! I especially loved "Never Fear" and "Pussin On the Ritz". A must read in 2016.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great book and great

A great gift to give yourself or any of your cat loving friends.By ChrisI love cats and I really loved this book of poems and illustrations. The author's inspired rhymes and verses express his understanding of the cat's true nature. My favorites were those from the Cat's Perspective, each one really embodies the personality and behavior of our cat companions. For instance "I Can Fit" captures a cat's fascination with squeezing into even the smallest box and "Aaahh, Christmas Tree" conjures up a cat's delight when seeing the tree go up with all those shiny toy ornaments. "My Patch of Light" represents every cat in the world whether big or small! Who can resist admiring a sleeping kitty curled up in their patch of sunlight? And then there is "I Don't Fetch" - enough said! If you love cats, you'll love this book.

Have you seen Blinky, my invisible cat? Perhaps he's blended into the furniture or, even worse, slipped away into the eleventh dimension! Don't worry, he'll turn up around dinner time, and while youre waiting you can enjoy this humorous and insightful collection of cat poems written from both human and cat perspectives. Whether you suddenly find your feet tapping to the cool syncopation of Jazz Cats and The Fiddle or strolling past the colorful imagery of Tom Cat Fritz, you are certain to recall all the wonderful things you love best about cats (along with a few that exasperate you!). Each poem is paired with the fine renderings of artist Shilpa R. Badadare. Her imaginative, hand-drawn illustrations are sure to spark your sense of whimsy in a way that mere stock photos cannot!
