throughout.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Hysterically funny!By C. daviesAny woman can completely relate to this author. She is hysterical. Loved the book, I have Naptime is the new happy hour, and can't wait to read it next.2 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Entertaining and WittyBy pamStephanie is a great creative writer. Her short stories provide humorous insight about her with a funny sense of irony. I am sorry I finished reading I'm Kind of a Big Deal and wonder how long I will have to wait for her next book. I read Sippy Cups and am now buying her other past books. Sippy Cups was also well done and a realistic look at "what to expect..." I look forward each week and enjoy her Podcasts with Lynette on the Parent Experiment. Only wish that was daily, but what more can I expect considering the podcast is free. Stephanie, I hope you continue with your writing as I think you are very gifted and I want more!

WARNING TO READERS: The Author of This Book is Kind of Crazy, Kind of Delusional, and All Kinds of Hilarious Whether she's driving a limo for former Family Ties star Justine Bateman, dancing in the dark for a rarely seen Bob Dylan music video, or stalking a bachelor reject from TV's Love Connection, Stefanie Wilder-Taylor is kind of a big deal—at least in her own mind. Smart, screwy, and scathingly funny, her tell-all essays capture every cringe-worthy moment of her kind-of famous life. From bombing as a stand-up comic for born-again Christians, to winging it as a singing waitress in an Italian restaurant, to posting open letters to Angelina Jolie and David Hasselhoff, this unstoppable L.A. transplant refuses to give up on her dreams—no matter how ill-advised—and shows us a side of Hollywood better kept hidden. When it comes to funny women—unplugged and unleashed—they don't get any wilder than Stefanie Wilder-Taylor. . . .

“Stefanie Wilder-Taylor is twisted and wrong and absolutely hysterical. But on top of impeccably timed punch-lines and sly social commentary, I'm Kind of a Big Deal contains the kind of heart and self-awareness that makes for a truly satisfying read. Unless you hate fun, buy this book.” —New York Times bestselling author Jen Lancaster "Bursting with hysterical, wildly perceptive musings about life, family, and some of the crazy choices we make along the way. The perfect blend of sassy and bittersweet." —Amy Hatvany, author of Best Kept SecretAbout the AuthorStefanie Wilder-Taylor is the author of Sippy Cups Are Not for Chardonnay and Naptime Is the New Happy Hour. She has written and produced more than thirty television sketch, clip, and variety shows, and been featured on the Today show, Oprah, Dr. Phil, Larry King Live, The Dr. Oz Show, and the award-winning PBS show Real Savvy Moms. She lives in Los Angeles with her husband and three young daughters. Visit her website at StefanieWilderTaylor.com.
