BBC Audiobooks : I'm Sorry I'll Read That Again: Volume Five before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised I'm Sorry I'll Read That Again: Volume Five:

3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. The last of its kind: Prune Tune Radio By Phred I'm Sorry I'll Read that Again, or ISIRTA to its fans was a 70's British radio show. Starring the future Monty Python John "Otto" Cleese and four other young Brit comics - well five if you allow Jo Kindle who was only in your imagination. It is elsewhere listed as a "Pie in your face" program. The theory was that if delivered fast enough bad jokes, terrible puns and obvious sound effects, would have you too busy reacting to the last joke to be aware that it was a huge fun bamboozle. When I originally heard the broadcasts I could never remember the jokes because I was usually enjoying the show too much and it came at you so fast. This CD is taken from a, and I quote: "facsimile edition of the original 1978 LP of comedy sketches." I am not sure what that means but this is not the best of Angus Prune Tune material. Not present are any segments of the Curse of the Flying Wombat, although the voice of Lady Constance De' Coverlet makes a brief appearance. Nor is there one of the show's signature, I'm Sorry I'll Read that Again blown lines. So be it, does list a few other recordings available but they are collator priced or not on CD. Meaning that this bit o` Brit comedy is an endangered specie. There is just enough fun in this one hour of material to help you remember or at least sample the madness that was. So (in my best radio fund raiser voice) Please buy this CD and maybe Tinkerbelle will Live Again! Or failing to save Tinkerbelle, maybe the money men will re issue the other material...

Described by Barry Took as 'A kaleidoscope of funny voices, catch phrase and innuendo revolving at breakneck speed and with a complete disregard for logic,' I'm Sorry I'll Read That Again pre-dated I'm Sorry I Haven't a Clue and showcased the comic talents of Tim Brooke-Taylor, John Cleese, Graeme Garden, David Hatch, Jo Kendall, and Bill Oddie. This compilation of classic sketches includes 'Full Frontal Radio,' 'Prune Manifesto,' 'Buffers,' 'Critics,' 'News in Welsh,' 'Listening to Flowers,' 'Eddie Waring Impersonation,' and 'Taming of the Shrew.' Vintage Beeb: classic albums first available as BBC LPs, now reissued on CD and as downloads. 1 CD. 37 mins.
