books by this mother and daughter team but have to say I enjoyed "Does this beach make me look fat?" and "Have a nice guilt trip" more than this book. As with the other books written by Lisa and Francesca, this is a series of short stories depicting their individual life experiences. I find I relate better to Lisa's stories but am sure that Francesca's stories will resonate with women in their 20's and 30's. I loved the chapter where Lisa referred to herself as a "bookaholic" and the picture with her piles of books looks exactly like my house. Am very happy to see I am not the only book "hoarder". This is very light reading and an easy and enjoyable read. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Scottoline and Serritella BookBy Grandma of four This book is good fun read book plus I like Lisa's column Chic Wit in the Sunday Philadelphia Inquirer which is what brought me to this book. If you're looking for a fast feel good book this is for you. Normally I read action books so this was a nice change! 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Lisa Scottolini is too funny! By Andrea Funny as usual. Have read them all for years. Nice light reading that you can pick up and put down randomly without losing your train of thought as they are individual stories.

"Lisa and Francesca, mother and daughter, bring you the laughter of their lives." ?Delia Ephron, bestselling author The bestselling and "perennially hilarious" mother-daughter team is back with a new collection of stories from their real lives, guaranteed to make you laugh out loud.
