Sam Elcot : Immortal Tales of Mulla Nasrudin before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Immortal Tales of Mulla Nasrudin:

This collection of anecdotes on Mulla Nasrudin is the final product of endeavours started by the author about fifty years ago. Compiled from many unconventional sources across a dozen Indian cities it is based on interviews with dozens of people and rare resources in Malayalam, Hindi, Tamil, Kannada, Arabic and Urdu. More than 500 pieces were then collected of which 111 are included here.
