personalities... this book will assure you that you are not alone in the madness of "Mommy-hood". If you grew up in the 70's 80's, it's a fun trip down memory lane as well. I seldom find a book that can keep my interest.... I couldn't put this one down. Reading this book I thought "someone secretly put up cameras inside my home and wrote a book all about me" ..... and the laughing out loud that comes with the trip down memory lane, loving it. This author needs to write another book so I have something to read.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. LOL a lotBy Kirsten RogersMarvellous, honest, funny and true!Still cracking up at many moments in this book-Mary Lynn's self deprecating wit makes motherhood into a sisterhood where we can all appreciate the ups and downs together. I had a lightbulb moment with the section on dads posse-yes they need their support too.Go on ML- write us another one please, and with more 'special' photos1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Finally someone writes what we are all thinking!By Anneve K. FigueroaThis book is seriously funny! ANY mom/parent will relate to these hilarious recollections. This author is right up there with Tina Fey and Jenny McCarthy if you ask me. So glad I picked this up for my summer trip, it was the perfect easy read and stress reducer!

I carry on the honest, but funny mom baton into the next generation of mothers, offering unsolicited advice, unnecessary suggestions to avoid peeing a little when you sneeze, inaccurate medical statistics, unhelpful tips for keeping it all together and the possible illegal promotion of prescription medication. Universal and truthfully funny, Someone's Always Watching Me Pee is the black-and-white version of our best girlfriend. This book answers the questions that keep us up at night and makes us feel a little better when we lie to our children ("McDonald's is closed today"). This is not a book for those who share a family bed and jar their own baby food. This is for the moms who dole out Benadryl, not as an allergy medicine, but rather to get their kids to sleep on an airplane or long car ride. The moms whose infants, barely able to formulate but 5 words, can spot a McDonald's or Chick-Fil-A and shout "Chicky Nugget!". And this book is for moms who have, although briefly, (but still nonetheless terrifying) ever lost their child at a pumpkin patch, a grocery store, a mall, a Peter Piper Pizza... or all of the above.
