Richard Benson : Sporting Wit before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Sporting Wit:

The world of sport has produced some memorable characters—yet the wit demonstrated off the track often scores even higher. For athletic wisecracks and champion comebacks, Sporting Wit is top of its field. Contenders for jocular gold include Muhammad Ali and Murray Walker, while among the gagsters in the grandstands are Oscar Wilde, Robbie Williams, and Albert Einstein. All ensure that Sporting Wit hits the bull's eye.
