"Doc" : SuperMD: Tales of medicine, maintenance and 911 before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised SuperMD: Tales of medicine, maintenance and 911:

Unique true adventures in medicine

About the Author "Doc" was reared in rural Piedmont North Carolina. He attended the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill for pre-med education and Wake Forest University Medical School, graduating as an M.D. in the 1970's. "Doc" practiced internal medicine for thirty years in eastern North Carolina. "Doc" has been married for thirty-eight years to his wonderful wife, and has been blessed with three sons and one granddaughter, who gave him the name, "Doc." He left medicine in 2008 to enjoy a more relaxing life working on his tree farm and exploring in his kayak.
