Some good advice, Buy Terrible AdviceBy RCVery funny book from Mike Rainey....it's a fun, quick read and I highly recommend it as gift for a friend. At first it may seem like a gag gift but I'm sure they will enjoy it. One last note, it's not a kids book by any means, so keep that in mind before you buy a copy for the young or prudish.

Terrible Advice is the perfect book for the loser with no friends, no self-esteem and no will power to continue living. So, in other words, this book is perfect for you. This book will give you all the advice your tiny brain can handle on topics such as falling in love, becoming president, and buying a black market helper monkey. The advice contained within this book is guaranteed to work or your money back. Wait. I take that back. There will be no money back guarantee. If you don't like it, just email me and voice your displeasure. Make sure you send it to yourself as well. I want you to see what an unbearable busybody you are. Long story short, buy the damn book and keep your opinions to yourself, jerk.

About the AuthorMike Rainey is a handsome gentleman that was born in Upper Darby, Pennsylvania. He has a lovely fiancé named Jaime. They have three children together, Isabella, Olivia and Mikey. They aren't married yet because Mike is basically just waiting to see how the whole thing shakes out. Mike is also a stand-up comedian who is a veteran of the white trash bar circuit. He also loves cats, funny cat videos, as well as dramatic cat videos. He doesn't like scary cat videos, like "Nightmare On Meow-m Street." There are plenty more where that came from in his stand-up performances.
